The citizens in the vicinity of Avenue G and Eighth street are petitioning for a lamp-post.

Dr. Richards, the electrician, has put in a $500 electric bath into his rooms, No. 607 Mynter street.

The district court opens at Red Oak on June 7. The trial of Dr. Cross is expected to take place this term.

A case of scarlet fever is reported at the residence of F. J. Starr. There seems to be little of this disease troubling the city now.

Little Elsie, aged only six weeks, the daughter of Harry and Anna Shary, died Sunday and was laid at rest on Decoration Day.

The Acme club will entertain a sociable at the residence of Mrs. A. S. Beck on Glen avenue, Thursday evening, June 2. All are cordially invited.

The funeral of Miss Gertrude Senek, one of the pupils of St. Francis' academy, was held yesterday. The school attended in a body and marched to the cemetery.

The Manawa gun club is to meet this evening at the county clerk's office at 8 o'clock. All members, and those desiring to become members, are requested to be present.

William Wieg has been released from the charge of breaking into John Hammer's house, it appearing that he is innocent and not altogether responsible for his wanderings.

The city council met next Monday night. The alderman met as a board of equalization last evening to hear complaints, and will meet daily until the work is completed.

Mr. J. Mueller was on Monday married to Cassa E. Fuller, Rev. G. W. Crofts officiating. The many friends will heartily congratulate, and the brightest and best of wishes are expressed for them.

The Wall-Wesley excitement was speedily disposed of in the police court yesterday morning. Dr. Wall pleaded guilty to being drunk, and was fined. Mr. Wesley was charged with resisting an officer and waived examination, giving bonds in the sum of $500 to await the action of the grand jury.

The bill for two carriages, $7, for the use of the city officials on Decoration day, has been passed by the council. The alderman voting against it. He has not made public his objections, but it is supposed that he has the idea that city officials can as easily furnish their own conveyances on such occasions as private citizens.

The city does not seem to get very good returns from its advertising. It advertised for bids for doing a large amount of street grading, but only got one response. That one was only a bid for doing the work on one block, and the bid was unaccompanied by any bond. The clerk has been authorized to spend some more money in advertising.

The police yesterday received a telegram from a Logan lady asking them to look out for her husband who was headed this way, and to hold him. The husband and wife had had some domestic troubles and the man had skipped. It seems that she wanted the police to hold him until she could get to him and effect a reconciliation. They declined to spend their time in such service.

Latest improved gasoline stoves at N. 504 Main street, W. A. Wood.

A Self Locker. A good joke is narrated as making Joe Matlock, of Crescent City, its victim, on decoration day. Joe had occasion to run up stairs in the city jail building for a few minutes, before the procession came along. He entered a toilet room, and thoughtlessly shut the door, which unfortunately for him locked himself on the other side by a spring bolt. At the same time that he discovered himself a prisoner, the jailer down stairs heard the music of the coming procession, and hurried out of the building. Joe rushed to the window, and commenced hallooing to passers-by to come up stairs and unlock the door, but they would look up and laugh, evidently taking him to be some crank who had been put in there for safe-keeping, and pass on. It was an hour or more before he got to the door, and the free air again. Hereafter in visiting the city he will look at both sides of every door before passing through.

W." has been on the road for years, and so many friends throughout his territory, which for several years past has been in Nebraska and western Iowa. The announcement of the change will come with surprise, but the trade will welcome him quite as heartily as the representative of the live and extensive house of David Bradley & Co., as when with his former employers, Mr. Hunt is to be congratulated on becoming associated with such a house, and the firm no less so on securing the services of so well known and popular a salesman.

A LONE FISHERMAN FINED.

The Case to Be Carried Up to a Higher Court as a Test.

HOW RICHMOND WAS TAKEN

Opinion on the New Fire Alarm—The Pool Tournament—The Jones Trial Still On—Points, Personal and Pithy.

The Fishermen.

John Robinson was before Judge Aylesworth yesterday morning on the charge of fishing with a seine in the waters of Honey creek lake. The evidence on the part of the prosecution was clear, and no attempt was made to even weaken it. Justice Dunkle, who represented the cause of the fisherman, and who is the secretary of their association, stated that they had decided to leave the matter entirely in the hands of the judge. Their purpose was to carry the case up and test the legality of the law. If Honey creek lake was under control of the state, and the law was constitutional, the fishermen would obey it. Judge Aylesworth recalled the fact that two other fishermen had been tried before him and found guilty. The lowest possible fine had been imposed, on recommendation of the prosecution and the promise of the fishermen that there would be no more offenses. It was supposed that an appeal would be taken, but for some reason no such appeal was taken, the fishermen preferring for some reason to wait for a new case. Under these circumstances, and the prospect of the case being appealed, the judge concluded to try to the other extreme and impose the heaviest fine possible, $50 and costs. The appeal bond was fixed at $200.

The fishermen, together with the two justices at the peace at Crescent, have joined in an association, and have issued a manifesto, which sets forth as the cause of grievance that "the Sporting club and Fish Protective association, of Council Bluffs, have constituted themselves a police authority, and have wantonly arrested two of our brother fishermen, carrying away their fish and nets; that said association is trying to stop our business as fishermen and citizens by destroying our business and the property interests interested in said business to the distress of ourselves, wives and children."

The purpose of the fishermen as declared in their resolutions is "to contest the right of the Council Bluffs association to destroy our property." A resolution has been adopted pledging the members to refuse support to any man for the state legislature who will not pledge himself to the resolutions. The whole has been put in the form of a circular closing with the following earnest and characteristic appeal:

Brother Fishermen: The time has now arrived for us to arise and stay the hand of this ruthless destroyer of our property! It can be done. All we need is, that the fishermen should shoulder to the wheel and work faithfully. The Lord and Justice are on our side, and we will win. O fishermen, unite! Boast that he has dollars where we have cents to carry on this fight. Will we stand this insult? This assertion that might and money make right? No never.

Brother Fishermen: We are men! We are entitled to our rights and privileges, the same as the richest in the land. So, why need we be oppressed or cast down? All their hopes lay in our being unable to raise funds to carry this important matter through to final judgment. I implore of every honest hard-working fisherman to give us his aid, and in this one act we will forever destroy the fish commissioner's assumed authority to arrest and destroy our property, without the right of trial or the sanction of the law.

Alarmed at the Alarm.

It is said that if Alderman Metcalf had been present at the council meeting Monday night the Richmond fire and police alarm would not have been accepted. The resolution was passed by a vote of three to two, Aldermen Lacy and Wells being in the minority. If Alderman Metcalf had been there to have cast his vote with them the resolution would have been lost. As it is the system is accepted, and within sixty days the city will have to make its first payment on it. The Richmond company will have to file bonds to guarantee the system for two years before it can demand any money. No such bonds have yet been filed.

Alderman Lacy has been against the Richmond system, first, last and all the time. He does not consider the test as satisfactory and makes the prediction that in bad weather and in the winter months it will not work as well. He is a great friend of the Gamewell, and has fought the introduction of the Richmond here.

Alderman Wells says he has no fight to make against the Richmond nor in its favor. He thinks, however, that there is no cause for haste in accepting the system. He wants to see the system tested in bad and cold weather. The Richmond company has been in no hurry to have the alarm tested and he could see no reason why the city should be in such a hurry to accept it.

Alderman Keller explains that the city has caused delay in the completion of the system by changing the location of the boxes and by increasing the number of boxes. The city has broken its part of the contract, and hence the company could not be censured for not completing the system within the time named in the contract.

Mayor Groneweg had no advice to give the aldermen as to whether the system should be accepted or not. He cautioned them, however, about looking upon the first acceptance as being an informal one, and depending upon the guarantee for the future. The acceptance, in his opinion, should not be hastily made, as it was an important matter.

The W. C. A.

An important business meeting of the W. C. A. will be held at Mrs. J. B. Atkinson's, 54 Sixth avenue, Wednesday, June 1, at 3 p. m. It is earnestly desired that all members be present.

Mrs. M. F. ROBERTS, Corresponding Secretary.

The Jones Trial.

The Jones trial continues in the district court. That Jones killed Roberts there seems to be little doubt, and that feature of the case is not being contested very hotly. The burden of the defense seems to be directed toward the establishment of the fact that Jones was insane at the time. An effort is being made to show that Jones lived happily with his wife until Roberts became intimate, and thus coming to the knowledge of Jones, his mind not being strong, the domestic troubles threw him into one of those conditions of insanity by which his life had previously been marked when laboring under excitement. The state was yesterday afternoon introducing evidence in rebuttal, and was seeking to show that Jones was not considered insane before this affair, and that Roberts was in no way responsible for the domestic difficulty, but that Jones himself was the cause of all the trouble. The introduction of the evidence is being sharply contested at every step, and there are some hot legal skirmishes, which form the most interesting portion of the trial. Jones sits on the same chair, apart from the other participants in the case. With downcast head, and a look as if he was more asleep than awake, he apparently

Tipton says the good work must go on, that he sees no reason for alarm about the bridge enterprise, but if we fall down with it, all we can do is to jump up, spit on our hands and break out in a new place. That this city is too large, too loyal to itself, too enterprising, to let a little obstacle like that stop the wheels of progress and prosperity.
